MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, United States Intelligence Board

SUBJECT: Addendum to "Proposal to Release
Material from the TALENT System"

REFERENCE: [redacted] same subject

1. On August 2d the United States Intelligence Board considered the reference paper. It concluded to postpone final consideration of the paper until after the Powers' trial. That trial has now been concluded and it does not seem that any development in that trial suggests considerations which would affect one way or another the argument put forward by the Ad Hoc Requirements Committee in the reference paper. At the meeting of the USIB on August 2d two matters were raised which require further comment. The first of these has to do with the use of TALENT material in exchanges with foreign liaison intelligence services. The ARC agreed on this subject as follows:
